

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Alameda is twenty-four hours overdue.

The next Australia will bring a large tourist party.

The next steamer from the Coast will be due on the 17th.

The island steamers may be detained several days yet.

The rebellion continues to be the absorbing topic of the day.

The condition of C. O. Berger is unchanged. He is still low.

Business is slowly but surely resuming its normal condition.

The steamer W. G. Hall will be in today from windward ports.

Send a copy of the war edition of the ADVERTISER with your letter.

A bunch of keys has been lost. A reward will be paid to the finder.

A number of marriages will occur between now and St. Valentine's Day.

The Queen's Hotel on Nuuanu street is being used as a sentry post.

The hotels and restaurants are doing a rushing business these days.

The Chinese population do not circulate as freely as before the rebellion.

There is no truth in the rumor that Quartermaster Hall has resigned.

J. M. Vivas has been appointed an agent to take labor acknowledgments.

There was never such a crowd on the reef as at present. Jailor Low is a busy man.

The Japanese about town take considerable interest in the outcome of the revolution.

Lewis J. Levey, who is under arrest, was stakeholder for nearly all restoration bets.

A dividend will be paid to the stockholders of Wilder's Steamship Company on Monday.

The resorts along Waikiki are doing an increased amount of business since the "war" broke out.

There are several thousand bunches of bananas on the Oceanic dock awaiting shipment by the Alameda.

James McInerney is convalescing. He is still at Mr. Davis' residence at Waikiki, but will be brought home shortly.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Will Prestidge to Miss Abbie Kealoha on Sunday, January 13th, at 6:30 p. m., at the family residence, Palama.

S. Takemura, 405 King street, received by the China and Bental, a new line of Japanese provisions, matting, etc. "S. T." tea is a specialty with this house.

The advisability of allowing the island steamers at the port to go and come as usual was discussed at the cabinet meeting yesterday morning. It was decided to defer decision until today.

A colored stableman, who has the night watch, was stopped by a guard, and the following laconic conversation took place: "Can I pass to get a cup of coffee?" "You may, if you have the ten cents."

Bruce Cartwright was out the other night supplying the sentries in his district with hot coffee. He was challenged and in answer to "Who comes there?" said "Coffee." The thirsty guard replied, "Advance coffee."

Chester Doyle lost a fine, white-handled Colt's revolver yesterday, while making a hurried drive along Nuuanu street. If the party who found the weapon will leave it at the police station he will receive the thanks of Mr. Doyle.

Mrs. Nancy Sumner Ellis died last evening after a lingering illness. She was 56 years of age. She leaves two sons and one daughter. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence.

The boys of Company B are loud in their praise of Dr. Wayson. The doctor offered his services to the company stating he would carry a gun until he was needed to attend the injuries of any member of the company. He has shared the hardships and pleasures with the boys from the first.

Adjutant-General John H. Soper has issued general orders, No. 14, which forbids any person whatsoever to pass through the line of sentries now maintained from Palolo to Nuuanu Valleys inclusive, or to leave the port of Honolulu for the other islands, without a pass from general or regimental headquarters.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

Two Good Papers to Send to Your Friends Today.

The sale of papers at this office is unprecedented. The reason for this is that the ADVERTISER prints the most readable account of the daily happenings. The entire field is covered and not an item of interest is omitted. Hundreds and hundreds of extra copies have been struck off daily to meet the demand. This fact proves that the accounts of the rebellion printed in this paper are the best.

Today you can have your choice of two printed mediums to send away. The ADVERTISER gives a summary of the news from Sunday night to this morning, inclusive. If you want accounts with the details, up to date get a GAZETTE, which will be issued today. You must send papers to your friends. Send them the ADVERTISER and GAZETTE, they are the best.
